Sunday is always a perfect day for me. The best part about Sundays is that I get to sleep late! Before I get out of bed, I think about what I will do that day. Then, I get up and go downstairs where mum always has a big breakfast waiting for me. After breakfast, I take a book and go out into our garden. I sit and read for a few hours and then I take my dog, Jeff, to the park for a nice long run. After that, I walk home and I go and have lunch with my family in our favourite restaurant. In the afternoon, dad takes us for nice long drives in the country. In the evenings, we all watch a film together and then we go to bed. Sometimes I think it’s sad that Sunday only comes once a week!

John Carter comes from London. He is a second-year student at Exeter University.

John has a regular daily routine. He wakes up at half past seven and, after a quick shower and breakfast, he catches the eight-fifteen bus to the university. Classes start at nine and finish at half past twelve.

John has lunch in the students' club at a quarter to one and then he goes to the library to study for an hour. John loves to keep fit, so he meets his friends at the sports centre to play tennis at three o'clock. At five, he starts his part-time job at Nicole's Restaurant. He finishes work at eight and then has dinner in the restaurant kitchen. He gets back to his flat at eight thirty and studies for a couple or more hours. He usually goes to bed at eleven o'clock.

New Year’s Day

by Sherry Grey

I love New Year’s Day! To me, this is a day when my family get together and enjoy themselves. On January 1st, my house is always full of aunts, uncles and cousins who I haven’t seen for ages and we all have the chance to catch up with each other’s news. My mum always makes a delicious roast beef lunch and we all sit around the table and eat, talk and laugh for hours. After this huge meal, it’s time to watch the Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl is one of the most important football championships in American League football. Everybody has their favourite team and sometimes the yelling and cheering can get very loud! The food and the football are all great, but I think the best part of the day is when we make our New Year resolutions. Although most people don’t keep their New Year promises, it is interesting to hear what everybody wants to change about themselves!

1. Sherry doesn’t really enjoy New Year’s Day.
   A. Right  B. Wrong  C. Doesn’t say
2. New Year’s Day is on the first day of January.
   A. Right  B. Wrong  C. Doesn’t say

5. Sherry’s family help wash the dishes after the meal.
   A. Right  B. Wrong  C. Doesn’t say
6. The people in Sherry’s family always support the same football team.
   A. Right  B. Wrong  C. Doesn’t say
7. Sherry’s favourite part of the holiday is the food.
   A. Right  B. Wrong  C. Doesn’t say
1. This is an article from a travel magazine about Chinese New Year. Match the paragraphs to what they are about.
   A. Name/time/place/reason for celebrating
   B. Traditions/activities
   C. Comments
   D. Preparations

1. Gung Hay Fat Choy! This is the Chinese greeting for the New Year. The Chinese also call this holiday the Spring Festival. Chinese people all over the world welcome the New Year sometime between winter and spring. The Spring Festival lasts for several weeks and celebrates the earth waking up after the cold winter.

2. Before the New Year, families clean their houses and decorate the doors with texts on red paper. These decorations keep out bad luck. Girls and boys get their hair cut and buy new clothes.

3. On New Year’s Eve, families have big traditional meals. In Southern China, they usually eat sweet rice pudding and honey. They stay up until midnight to watch firework displays. On New Year’s Day, they usually visit friends and family and of course eat lots of delicious food. In the middle of the holiday season, people walk through the streets carrying beautiful lanterns. They follow a parade that includes big dragons, lion dancers in colourful costumes and people playing drums.

3 Read the text and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

Ben Loiterstein is a very famous man. He’s a teacher of English but also a Scrabble world champion. Ben believes that Scrabble belongs in the classroom. He says, "I use Scrabble in class all the time. It is a thrilling experience for the kids. They learn arithmetic, language, dictionary skills and team work. Scrabble teaches them everything in a really fun way."

Other teachers seem to agree with him that Scrabble is a way for young people to have fun and learn at the same time. They think teenagers, who seldom open a dictionary, rarely go to the library and usually spend most of their time surfing the Internet, find playing Scrabble interesting. One of them says, "It’s the only time I ever see my students fight over a dictionary, or even open one!"

Ben visits classrooms across the country to help other teachers understand that Scrabble is an educational tool, a tool for improving strategic thinking and bringing people together.

4. Read the text and choose the correct answer.

William Shakespeare, the world’s greatest playwright, was born in April, 1564. He grew up in Stratford-upon-Avon in central England and attended Stratford Grammar School.

In 1582, when Shakespeare was 18 years old, he married a woman named Anne Hathaway and the couple had three children. A few years after his marriage, Shakespeare moved to London where he worked as both a playwright and an actor. In 1593, he joined ‘The Lord Chamberlain’s Men’, one of England’s most famous acting companies.

Shakespeare stayed with this group, acting and writing, until 1599. It was in this year that the theatre where the group performed burnt down. He continued to act in another theatre called ‘The Globe’ until 1613, when he chose to retire. Shakespeare went on writing plays up until his death in 1616.

11 Translate into English:
a) Мы вчера ходили в зоопарк, самый большой зоопарк в стране. Я не могу сказать, что получила удовольствие. Везде были надписи: «Не ходи по траве», «Не корми зверей». Я хотела сфотографировать самых красивых зверей, но я не могла подойти близко, потому что было много народа. Некоторые звери спали, а некоторые были не очень дружелюбны. Мы не могли устроить пикинок, потому что там не было места для этого. Вчера было воскресенье, и в зоопарке было много маленьких детей. Они шутили и кричали. В следующие выходные я поеду в лес. Думаю, это блестящая идея. В лесу не нужно думать о большом количестве правил.

b) 1. Мой дядя на пять лет младше моего отца. 2. Мой чемодан тяжелее, чем твой. 3. Твоя сестра самая красивая девочка в классе. 4. В прошлом году наша баскетбольная команда была самой популярной в городе. 5. Автобусы более переполнены, чем трамваи. Я поеду на трамвае. 6. Это самая плохая комедия. Она скучная. 7. Моя спальня более прибрана, чем твоя. 8. Твой портфель дешевле, чем мой, но он краснее. 9. Это самая блестящая идея. 10. Петь моложе Анина брата, но старше твоего.

c) — Мама, могут мои друзья прийти ко мне сегодня?
— Ты шутишь? Сегодня ты должен убрат квартиру, сделать уроки, сходить в магазин.
— Я всё сделаю. Могут они прийти вечером?
— Хорошо, но вы не должны шуметь. Я испеку пирог для вас.

   b. special cars in a parade, covered with many flowers
   c. people who watch something happening
   d. people in a town or village who are not tourists

3. Read the text and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

The Battle of Flowers is a great parade which is lots of fun. It takes place every year on the second Thursday in August on Jersey Island in the English Channel. It is a flower festival famous round the world. Local people wear colourful costumes. There are flower floats and music bands playing happy music. Lots of visitors come to watch the parade every year because it is different from other festivals. People in the parade throw flowers at the spectators and the spectators throw the flowers back at the people in the parade. That’s why the festival’s name is ‘The Battle of Flowers’. The local people think it is a lucky festival because it is always sunny and never rainy on ‘Battle Day’. So, see you in Jersey!

Dear Lucy and Danny,

Greetings from Belgium! It's warm and sunny here and I am in a nice, friendly little town. There are lots of things to do so I'm going to stay here for a few days.

Tomorrow I'm going to go to the town fruit festival. They have a parade with bands and floats. The local people in the parade all wear colourful costumes and carry baskets of fruit. They throw the fruit to the people in the streets. It sounds like fun! I'm going to take lots of photographs to show you when I get back.

See you next week,

Love,

Stacey
